"The Star that never sets

The Verdict of the People.

We have the pleasure of recording the verdi of the honest and intelligent people of Vernior in a genuine old fashioned Whig victory. As nexed are very full returns, showing the election

> WHIG STATE OFFICERS. A WHIG SENATE And a

WHIG HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES To this we may add, as morally certain, th election of three Whigs to one coalitionist Congress, although a couple of clever fellows the first district have postponed the election of one of them to another day.

The victory then is complete, and the onl ground for regret is, that the vote is light, es pecially in the strong whig holds of Addison, Ru land, Windsor and Windhan. With a full vote we think the whig majority would very nearl have been doubled. But it is enough to demor strate that those politicians, who undertake t cheat the whig freemen of Vermont, have unde taken a hopeless task. They are not to be bea in-either in a fair fight or a foul one. "S

We hear little from Orange, but that little is good. Hon, Levi B. Vilas is elected Represen-tative from Chelsea, over Elihu Hyde the long-teamer, elected last year. This is glorious.—

Fraud was so palpable in the Chelsea election that Mr. Vilas will not claim a seat: for aught we see, we may say of the Patriot's glory as

*Levi B. Vilne, conlition, her the certificate. There were two isellots. On the first, Eithu Hyds, whig, had 226, Levi B. Vilne 224, acuttering 5. These votes tally very mently with the results of the coarvances of the two parties—but were 41 more than the number of names on the check list. On the second belief, Vilne had 261, Hyds 253, acuttering 2—50 vets given more than the number on the check list! The Question Settled.

The House has passed the Texas boundary bill, including a territorial bill for New Mexico, without the Wilmot Proviso. The Proviso we regard of less consequence than the boundary, as Slavery may be excluded without the Proviso; but it is outrageous to give thousands of miles of free soil to Texas, and pay her ten millions into the bargain! The only excuse for this act is, that there will be civil war without it. We don't believe a word of it; and if true, we don't believe in buying rebellion off: it is too much like treating a spoilt child to sugar plumbs, in stead of the scripture rule—"a rod for the fool's back." We are therefore sorry to say that 24 stead of the scripture rule—"a rod for the fool's back." We are therefore sorry to say that 24 Northern Whigs voted for this bill: so did 31 Northern locoe. The majority of the Northern Whigs voted against the bill, and only 13 Northern locos. The majority of the Whigs were right; the majority of locus were wrong. He referred to the celebrated case of Graves presus Slaughter—observing, that Mr. Ciay then as counsel argued with much ability and force that Congress under the pawer to regulate commerce, has no right to prohibit any branch of it, and contending that if his argument was then a good one, it established the unconstitutionality of this bill; so also with an argument made on the same case by Mr. Webster till the Supreme Court ruled against those gentlemen. But he contended that they did not overrule upon the points represent ed by them, upon which he [Hunter] rehed in his opposition to the bill. Mr. Cisy said the provisions of the amendment were very proper in themselves, and he
